Saad Abdur Razzaq

has successfully completed the online, non-credit Professional Certificate

SAP Technology Consultant

Congratulations! You have successfully completed this program and you are now ready to launch your career as an SAP Technology Consultant with SAP or one of SAP's partners. You have learned about project management methodologies and have gained consulting skills such as requirements gathering, stakeholder interviewing, client communication, client analysis, and solution design. You have applied these skills to a comprehensive case-study and have evidence to support your applications for your new role.
